

International Mission Staff

Presbyterians Sharing is supporting Stephanie as she serves as a Young Adult Intern with Kalunba Social Services, a refugee ministry of the Reformed Church of Hungary.

STEPHANIE CHUNOO, HUNGARY

Beginning October 1, 2018, until July 31, 2019, Stephanie Chunoo will be serving as a Young Adult Intern with Kalunba Social Services, a refugee ministry of the Reformed Church of Hungary—a long standing partner of the Presbyterian Church in Canada.

Excited about her placement with Kalunba, Stephanie will be building relationships with the refugee clientele, teaching English and assisting with the English website by providing content to connect international readers.

As someone who understands the challenges facing immigrants and refugees, she is passionate about the issues affecting them.

When asked to describe her understanding of mission, Stephanie says, “Whenever I hear the word ‘mission’ I always think of these song lyrics: ‘Reflect his image and show the world that he cares.’ So, when I think of mission, I think of God’s people helping those who are in need.”

Together with other dedicated staff and volunteers at Kalunba, Stephanie will be putting into action God’s call to welcome the stranger.

Stephanie graduated from York University in 2017 with an Honours Bachelor of Arts in International Communications and a minor in International Development. She completed a Certificate in Refugee and Migration Studies at York University in 2018.

As an active member of Leaside Presbyterian Church in Toronto, Ontario, Stephanie has been sharing her gift of teaching since 2010. Her other passion is photography.
